DITTSBURGH, (Pa.) Aug. 6.—After weeks of preliminary skirmishing, at last the great battle between the gigantic steel trust and the thousands of men marshaled under the banners of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers is fairly on. The long-talked-of general strike order was issued by President Shaffer this evening, to take effect after the last turn of the mills August 10.

What the result will be no man can foretell, but judging by the expressed determination of both parties to the controversy, the battle will be waged to the very last ditch. Much money will be lost, thousands upon thousands of men will be idle, great suffering is looked for, and even bloodshed and death are possible and feared. The strike call includes practically all Amalgamated men in the United States Steel Corporation, including employees not now on a strike. It was issued from the Amalgamated Association headquarters and mailed to all Amalgamated lodge officials who are expected to call their men into the strike The text of the call follows:

"Brethren: The officials of the United States steel trust have refused to recognize as union men those who are now striving for the right to organize. The Executive Board has authorized me to issue a call upon all Amalgamated and other union men in name and heart to join in the movement to fight for labor's rights. We must fight, or give up forever our per-

"Remember, before you agreed to any contract you ook an obligation to the Amalgamated Association. It now calls you to help in the hour of need.

"Unless the trouble is settled on or before Saturday, August 10, 1901, the mills will close when the last turn is made on that day.

"Brethren, this is the call to preserve our organization. We trust you and need you. Come and help us, and may right come to a just cause.

"Fraternally yours,

"T. J. SHAFFER." [Signed]

President Shaffer added this statement: "The call es to the vice-presidents of the districts in which

INT THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

NEW TORK, Aug. 4.—The Herald's forrespondent at Cronberg gives details regarding the death of the Dowager Empress of Germany. The mournful intelligence soon spread from the tower to the town where flags were placed at half-mast, and the inhabitants of Cronberg met in small groups to discuss the tidings of the death. The village of Oberussel is the half-way house between Homburg and Cronberg, and therefore, from the news point of view, is of strategical importance. All day, in fact, since the Kaiser hurried through it, the place has been filled with tropps.

Late at night it is still teaming with blue knears with long knees, on which black and white pennants flutter. It is a great millitary demonstration. The order has just come in for the entire road to be patrolled the whole night, and the almost-famished officers and men are rushing about trying to find food for man and beast, both of which had a hard time. They looked rather exhausted after having been on duty for eighteen hours.

Up to a late hour the entire road from Oberursel to Cronberg was full of posple watching for the Kaiser, and they unanimously interpreted ominously his non-return. The officers of the hussars were greedily eating supper at the local Schutzenhot. Hotel, and with troops everywhere.

wine has fallen to less than 1 cent a gallen.

The French growers, according to the Chronicle, do not intend shipping wine to this country, owing to the tariff, but they propose to send over condensed must. This is unfermented juice of the grape which can be quickly converted into fair wine by the addition of water. The duty on must is only 30 per cent. advalorem, it coming under the head of "unenumerated articles" in the tariff schedules.

The wine interests of California will at once take steps to have the omission of must from the tariff rectified by Congress, and it is likely that the measure to that effect will be placed in charge of Representative Kahn on his return from the Philippines.

one of which the applicant for a place was obliged to sign. The purport of this contract was that the company agreed to pay to second-class machinists 30 cents an hour for all work done from the date of their arrival in San Francisco. It furthermore set forth that none but sober, industrious men would be engaged. What seemed the stumbling block to those who applied was that the applicants were asked to deposit a guarantee of 235 to help defray expenses of transportation from here to San Francisco, this sum to be refunded to the employe after six months of faithful service.

Several of the leading labor men among the iron trades of the city thought it highly improbable that the company could get men to engage with them under the conditions imposed.

NEWCASTLE (Pa.) Aug. 7, 2:15 a.m.—At midnight. 375 men, representing the last turns of the steel and bar mills of the local plants of the steel mills, walked out in deference to thy general strike order of President Shaffer. The order was obeyed without the least hesitation. The 300 steel workers of this city are organized. Included in their lodge are the 200 employes of the local bar mill of the National Steel Company. The steel and bar plants are now guarded closely by watchmen, and no one is allowed within the inclosure.

The strike now affects 5700 men in this city. At the end of the week, the number will be increased to 7000. The addition will be caused by the stoppage of the Rosena, Raney, Shenango and Neshannock furnaces. Thes furnish their product of pig iron to the steel mill, the capacity of which is 1800 tons per day. This plant furnishes nearly one-fourth of the total tonnage of the National Steel Company.

TAMPA (Fla.) Aug. 6.—The strike situation tonight is one of hewliderment upon the part of the strikers and immovable determination on the part of the citisens. No word has been received from or about the Resistencia leaders, who were deported last night, and the vigilantes are sworn to secrecy, further than that they admit the men will never return to Tampa.
The exact number of the men deported is not yet known, but every prominent

The kidnaping last night had been planned for days. A great open-air meeting had been arranged, at which sil the Resistencia leaders had been invited, the purpose being to catch them all in a bunch. They were all present. Music had been provided, and the streets were lined with thousands of people. Shortly before the posse of citizens arrived at the place, the news reached the strike leaders, and they quickly disappeared. The crowd was not daunted, and commenced a manto-man search through the streets and snatched the men from the crowds. They were placed in carriages that had been provided, between heavily-armed guards and driven away.

The captured leaders were at once driven to the county jail, where they remained upon the outside under guard for a few minutes. Then they disappeared, and have not been seen or heard of since. Various rumors as to their disposition have been circulated in this city today, it being most generally reported that they were taken into the guif in an unknown and mysterious vessel. All of the deported strike leaders were Spaniards and Cubans.

leaders were deported this afternoon and tonight. Some of the strikers have held a number of meetings during the day secretly, and have conferred with a number of lawyers with a view of taking some action. No one would take the case. They have also appointed new committees to carry on the work, and in the case of each committee five different ones were created, so that when one is taken away another will take his place.

A proclamation was issued here this afternoon signed "The People of Tampa." It says in part: "To the anarchiests and professional labor agitators: We say that your days in Tampa are at an end. We cannot and will not permit you to destroy this prosperous city. If you have regard for your safety you will shake its dust from your feet. In conclusion, we notify the manufacturers that this movement of citizens is not in your interest, but in the interest of the entire community."

PHELAN QUITS AND SO DO MORE MEN.

Mayor Phelan declares that, so far as he is concerned, peace negotiations are at an end, he having done all that he could to bring about a conference.

Tomorrow morning the sand teamsters, some 560 in number, will refuse to go to work, having been ordered out on strike. This will tend to cripple the building industry of the city, as materials cannot then be hauled.

The Building Trades Council claims that there are only 150 idle union painters this afternoon, and that in a short time the Master Painters' Assopainters this afternoon, and that in a short time the Master Painters' Asso-ciation will be brought to terms. The Municipal League officials are hopeful that a conference may yet be ar-ranged, and it has been suggested that Gov. Gage be urged to assume the role of mediator.

There were the usual daily assault of non-union workmen. Two came very near ending seriously. GOVERNOR A FACTOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Gov. Gage has become a factor in the situation, and it is this new development that causes hope to revive somewhat. Whether or not the efforts of the State's executive will bring about any amelioration of the present conditions, the mere presence of the Governor in the city, coupled with the anno ment that he is trying to harm ment that he is trying to harmonize the contending parties, tends to produce a greater feeling of confidence.

As yet there is no sign from the Employers' Association that can be construed into concession from the position already declared and reiterated. On the side of the labor unions, the lines of the struggle are being more closely drawn, the strike is being extended to trades not previously involved, and greater vigor is manifest in the conduct of the fight. The sand teamsters will strike tomorrow morning. sters will strike tomorrow morning. This will operate to tie up the building

AN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The only development of importance in the labor situation today, so far as the extension of strikes is concerned, was the walkout of more than 400 union box makers, who had been employed at the various box factories of the city. The men claim that they were so often urged to sign an agreement, which meant their resignation from the union, that they decided to no longer brook the menacing attitude of their employers and to join the forces of the idle.

The saliors are expected to desert the big vessels and enter the service of the coasting steamers, where good wages are paid, and the treatment is far better than on the "lime judeers."

The San Francisco Cycle Board of Trade has undertaken the task of enlisting all the retail dealers' associations of the city in a united effort to bring about a settlement of the strike. The strike order has been extended to include the ports of Benicla and Redwood City.

A mass meeting under the auspices of the Labor Council will be held Thureday night, at which the situation will be discussed. The Labor Council has excepted from the order to the sand teamsters to strike those teams employed in removing city refuse.

OAKLAND PAINTERS' STRIKE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—AM.]

OAKLAND, Aug. 6.—The strike of the Painters' and Decorators' Union is in progress again today, and journeymen and master painters say they are in it, and propose to fight it out to the bitter end. The bosses say that 3 must remain the maximum wage for painters, and the demand for $3.50 per day will never be conceded. This determination was reached at a meeting of the bosses held last night.

There are between fifty and sixty painting firms here who are members of the Master Painters' Union, and these firms, the bosses say, will stoutly refuse to grant an increase in wages. The journeymen, on the other hand, declare that there are eighteen shops here which are paying their men $3.50 a day, and that forty-seven journeymen found employment in them at that figure this morning.

These men have had their property in Alaska for over a year, but only recently began paying any attention to it. It was then decided to make a personal inspection, and the Perry was tendered them for the trip. Besides the Congressmen, five mining experts, one of them being Maj. Catlin, who has the reputation for being the best mining expert in the world, and has just completed an investigation of mining property belonging to the British government in the Transvaal, started for Alaska five weeks ago, and the experts took their time in examining the prospects. They worked singly, but each one made practically the same report, that the mines will be worth millions of dollars when property developed, and the output will rival that of the Lake Superior mines.

raying that that was all that Mrs. Tingley had given him for her. She refused the money, asking if that was all they were going to offer her for all these months of hard work. She says that Haison also told her that she was poor and that they were rich, and that while she could do nothing they could do everyting. Beech gave her $30 to get her to Point Loma, and she had to get home as beat she could.

Mrs. Kratzner says that Mrs. Tingley told her on one occasion that a woman of her standing ought to be gird if she got enough to eat. She considered the work she did there worth at the rate of $40 or $50 per month. Ars. Kratzner's story was decidedly uncomplimentary to the management of the Point Loma lay-out.

month. Mrs. Kraisner's story was decidedly uncomplimentary to the management of the Point Loma layout.

The trend of the defense was to show that the woman had come there with a perfect understanding, and that she was well treated; that she got all she bargained for, and more. Mrs. Tingley was allowed to go on at her own sweet will in giving her aide of the affair. When objection was raised by her attorney, she appealed to him to be allowed to go on, "for," said she, "I think it will help our case." According to her story, what the children needed was discipline, and it was the alm of the school to put this to the fore. In Tillie's case she should say that about one hour of book and four hours of work was the right proportion. The school is not a charitable affair; everybody there has to help out in the work. She declared the family had had the most considerate of treatment, but that Mrs. Kratsner became discontented and hard to manage, and she finally told her if she didn't like it she better be moving.

Dr. Beech testified that there was no understanding as to wages or the conditions on which the woman was to go to the institution. Mrs. Tingley set for her, he conveyed the message and Mrs. Kratsner was perfectly willing to go.

The other witnesses corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Tingley, flatty denying many of the charges made by Mrs. Tingleys idea that the girl had got more than she had given them in services. It was worth more than a money value to dwell with them.

At the afternoon session the story of the mysterious doings at the Point Loma spookery was reheared by Mrs. Tingley's idea that the girl had got more than she had given then in services. It was worth more than a money value to dwell with them.

Canyon Company to Pay Dividend-Silver King After Water,

SLOWLY COMING INTO LINE.

Members of the Oil Produers' Association have been working night and day to bring local well owners into line, and are able to report that signatures representing almost three hundred and fifty wells have already been secured. It is the hope of the association that the contract with the Oil Storage Company will become operative by September 1.

Securing signatures is naturally slow at best, as in many cases the proposed contract has to be submitted to the officers and directors of companies. "Prospects are that we will complete the work in time to start the ball by September 1." said Maj. Easton yesterday.

SUCCESSFUL AT FULLERTON.

The Bree Canon Oil Company has just announced that it has been able to make the all business profitable in the Fullerton field, and as an evidence of this has just announced that it will on September 1 begin the payment of a 3 per cent monthly dividend. The company now controls 200 acres in the Fullerton field, and its recent strikes on the same have been record breakers. The present monthly production is close to 12,000 barrels, and the stock is quoted on the local floor at $3.50. Its capitalization is only $200,000.

SILVER KING AFTER WATER

SILVER KING AFTER WATER.

The Sliver King is negotiating with the Sumner Water Company to furnish water from its well on section 17, 29, 28, for the city of Kern. The Sliver King, while drilling for oil, struck a stratum of water sand a few days ago, from which large quantities of pure, fresh water can be drawn, and inasmuch as the Sumner Water Company is somewhat embarrassed by lack of water, it may be that some agreement will be reached whereby the residents of that city will get water for domestic purposes from that source.

The same company has been studying the lands on the south side, and has found that by running a pipe line to the south and east, the companies in that direction can be furnished with water without much trouble. This will probably be done in case the strike reported to have been made by the Panoram on section 14 stimulates other companies, while the injuries of the others consist of slight cuts from flying debris.

The property loss will amount to about $15,000, on which there is small insurance. SILVER KING AFTER WATER

REDLANDS, Aug. 6-[From The Times' Resident Correspondent) An accident serious in its consequences, if trivial in its cause, occurred here last evening when Miss Amelia Swartz, a well-known young society woman, was bitten in the face by her horse as she was tying him to a post in plain sight of many passers-by who were unable to assist her.

The animal balked slightly, and the young lady struck him on the nose with the tying rope, whereupon he snapped at her. The animal's teeth swept from chin to forehead. leaving their marks all the way. The nose was torn loose at the base, and a severe gash was left over the eyebrow on the right side. The young lady was carried in a fairting condition to a drug store, and a physician was called to attend her injuries. She recovered rapidly from her fright, and her will always carry the marks

TEST OF TEXAS HILL.

YUMA (Aris.) Aug. 5.—[Regular Correspondence.] A positive move toward ascertaining the value of the oil in the Texas Hill district is soon to be made by a company organised for that purpose. The incorporators are F. L. Ewing. Donald McIntyre. and Frank Guerra of Yuma, and W. A. Johnson and F. L. Johnson of Los Angeles. The company has ackuired. 2000 acres of promising land near Mohawk Summit, the capitalization being quoted at $400,000. The land in question is said to bear most promising indications on the surface, and the company has ordered from Los Angeles a standard well rig, and the apparatus necessary to thoroughly test the ground. The outcome of the experiments will be watched with great interest, the finding of oil in marketable quantity being a matter of vital importance to Southern Arisona.

IBY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.1

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 6.—The decaplitated body of a woman was found last night lying on the Santa Fe tracks near the junction with the Southern Pacific, about two miles east of this city, by a switching crew of the Santa Fé. The body was today identified as that of Maud Raymond, who was employed in a lodging-house here. The body was lying between the tracks, while the head lay outside the rails. One arm was pulled out of its socket, while the other was completely cut off, and the head was badly crushed.

The woman was killed by the freight train which leaves here at 10:20 p.m., going east. The woman was 52 years of age, and was a native of Illinois. She was seen in an intoxicated condition an hour before her body was found on the tracks. An inquest was held this afternoon, and the jury returned the verdict "that the woman came to her death by being run over by the cars."

I shall ask them to say whether they prefer the Senator who has tried to retain for South Carolina the honor and dignity won by a long line of illustrious sons and giorious deeds, or the Senator who has posed as buffeon and builty, and who preciaimed on the floor of the Senate that he represented a constituency of ballot-box stuffers and murderers, who wanted their share of the stealage.

All excepted articles, save only cora (grain) and other food products, were made subject to the above clause on and after January 5, 1816.

DECLINE OF IRISH INDUSTRIES. tion of the Napoleonic wars depressed the agricultural interests because large food supplies were no longer needed by British armies and navies on a war footing. And the population began to show a large increase. The census of 1821 proved this officially. In 1829 Daniel O'Connell, after an agitation of about two decades, succeeded in gaining Catholic emancipation, but did it by sacrificing the control of the ty-shilling freeholders," created and en-franchised by the Irish Protestant Par-liament in 1792. This provision was a "rider" placed by Sir Robert Peel on the emancipation bill. O'Connell was not enough of a seer to behold the fatal consequences—the Irish peasantry were no longer valuable to their landlords. Instead of being to the latter a weapon of political power they became "a sur-plus population" and were "in the way." Consequently, they must be "shoveled off the soil" at the first favorable opportunity. IRISH GO BACK TO THE SOIL.

IRISH GO BACK TO THE SOIL. given their votes for Catholic emancipation. They did not, poor fellows know that they were also doomed to give their lives for it. Peel knew that they had made Catholic emancipation possible. As Pitt because of commerce had decreed the ruin of the Irish Parliament, so Peel, for a still baser motive—political revenge—decreed the extinction of those poor peasants.

The census of 1831 showed still an increase in the population of Ireland. Most of the people who had abandoned manufacturing because of English competition fell back on the land for support. The potato, imported from America by Raleigh in the reign of Elisabeth, became their staple food. All the other crops and the live stock which they raised in abundance went to pay the exorbitant rents of allen or absentee landlords, who spent the money in foreign countries, neglecting their home responsibilities.

The Irish constabulary and the English army aided the landlords and the agents in the collection of the unjust rents.

COMING OF THE POTATO BLIGHT.

COMING OF THE POTATO BLIGHT.

In 1841 the population of the island had increased to over $,000,000 souls. In 1845 it was estimated at about $,500,000.

The harvest time of that year marked the first indication of the potato blight—the potato on which more than half the rural population depended for food. In 1846 the curse came down in all its horror on the doomed Irish peasantry. The potato crop rotted in the ground. Death stared the unhappy people in the face. The British government, although it had ample warning, was tardy in coming to the relief of Ireland. The British public was skeptical as to the extent of the distress. So also was the British Parliament, which controlled the money bags. Parliamentary commissions were appointed to inquire into the state of Ireland. The "corn laws" were repealed—a measure that benefited Great Britain, but only served to make the condition of the Irish farmer worse, as he had now in addition to his other ills to endure the burden of foreign competition. There were enough grain and meats on the Irish soil to feed all the people if the Irish ports had been closed and exports of food from the afflicted country prohibited, as would have been done by an Irish Parliament. The British Parliament, when it was too late, voted millions of pounds for relief and for public works in Ireland. British individuals subscribed liberally, although the reigning monarch—the late Queen Victoris—did not set them a munificent example. RESULTS OF THE GREAT FAMINE.

In view of the situation which they indicate, it is surprising, to state the case as mildly as possible, that the Finance Committee of the City Council should report an ordinance making an aggregate increase of over $15,000 per year in the municipal expenses—the increase being mostly in salaries. Some of these proposed increases would possibly be justifiable if the city's finances were in a more satisfactory condition. Under existing circumstances they are not to be defended upon any ground of expediency, necessity, or good policy. There are too many employees now in some of the departments of the municipal government. In the readjustment for the coming year, these might have been reduced without serious disadvantage. Instead of reducing the number of employees, the proposed ordinance increases the number. Some of the additions to the salary list are more than questionable.

These noises are a preventable evil, and therefore a needless one.

MONROVIA (Cal.) Aug. 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Since our morning service at the United Brethren Church last Sunday and after reading the Times' article I have been thinking that perhaps some public notice should have been given to one of our most faithful workers in the Times' prize contest, Mrs. Neille Haupt. She spent weeks and sacrified herself in many ways in order to get subscriptions for the paper. She got about 1500 months herself. If you think it proper and not too late, it would be gratifying to many of us if the fact could be mentioned in The Times.

The indications are that the garden hose has been made to play a prominent part in the production of the lacteal fluid doled out to customers in the early morning

As the offenders have repeatedly caused trouble before, the health department intends to proceed against them in the courts, providing the prosecuting attorney will issue the necessary warrants. Until the warrants are issued the names of the dairles affected will be withheld.

About two minutes before the bids were opened yesternay—indeed, Mr. Clark's had been the only bid—another one was submitted by Henry de Garmo, president of the Los Angeles Lime Company, and also of the Los Angeles Conserving Company. When these bids were opened it developed that the franchise was his. The Clark bid was $1578, whereas the De Garmo bid offered $2075—a difference of $500. Insamuch as Mr. De Garmo is perfectly responsible, the board could do nothing else than award him the franchise. But what Mr. De Garmo intends to do with the franchise is the question.

"You may simply state," said Mr. De Garmo, "that I am holding the franchise as a speculation, it is good property, and I can certainly have no trouble in disposing of it at an advantage. Yee; Mr. Clark did seem surprised when my bid carried off the prise. What did you say his bid was? Well, I don't know what I shall do with the franchise yet. My plans are not formulated."

Mr. De Garmo was asked if it might not be the plan of the Los Angeles Lime Company to build a wharf on the franchise, but he refused to commit himself.

COUNTY BUYS LITERATURE. COUNTY BUTS LITERATURE.

F. Q. Story, representing the Chamber of Commerce, appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday to ask that the county purchase 10,000 copies of an attractive little pamphlet called "Los Angeles City and County," for distribution during the closing days of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. Mr. Story's request was promptly granted, and the necessary 1390 was ordered paid from the immigration fund. of over $1,000,000. The tax levies for all purposes are regularly fixed for the ensuing year some time in September.

"It is only incidentally," said Mr. Cass yesterday, "that I wish to call the attention of you gentlemen to the important matter of a $10,000 tax levy for exposition purposes, which the new law now makes possible. You all realize the importance of this exposition work. It has been variously estimated that our advertising at the Buffalo Exposition will bring $10,000,000 to Southern California for invostment within the next five years. Who can name the innumerable benefits that are to accrue to this county? Now, the farmer has very small opportunity to help pay for our advertising in the East. This levy which we are now asking for will be, as it were, his contribution. The merchant will have to pay, too, but even then this tax will be in addition to what they are continually giving out of their own pockets directly. As soon as the Pan-American is concluded, we shall want to begin to prepare for the fair in $1. Louis in 1903. We must commence next year, for doubtless we will be compelled to pay for our subcommence next year, for doubtien will be compelled to pay for our scribed space far in advance." LIBRARY EXTENSION.

Miss Mary L. Jones, Publ'c Librarian, accompanied by Dr. Trueworthy of the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Public Library, outlined to the Board of Supervisors yesterday a plan for library extension in Los Angeles county. It is estimated that an appropriation of $8000 for the first year would put the plan into operation.

Two methods of obtaining the same result were suggested, as follows:

1—Traveling libraries.

Groups of fifty volumes to be made up in permanent packages which may be loaned for periods of three months.

(a) To communities having no libraries, upon the request of a certain numb of tanapayers, who shall be responsible for the care and distribution of the books in the community.

(b) To libraries already established from which the books shall be distributed throughout the community which the library serves. LIBRARY EXTENSION.

(c) To Sunday-school libraries.

(d) To clubs and social organizations.

3—The privilege of drawing books from the Los Angeles Public Library to be extended to all residents of the county without a fee.

In speaking of the matter, which the Supervisors now have under advisement. Miss Jones said:

SUPREME COURT WINCE?

DOES SUPREME COURT WINCE?
That Judge Shaw's recent opinion rendered in granting a motion to dismiss the Compton forgery case has created more than passing interest and comment among the members of Supreme Court, which he took cccasion to arraign in outspoken terms, is evidenced by a letter just received by W. What appeared to be a sudden joit to the plans of the new San Pedro. Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company took place before the Board of Supervisors yesterday.

DOCTOR'S INSANITY.

BRILLIANT MAN'S MIND GONE.

Dr. Grainger Hyer of Ontario, who has been living of late in this city at Hotel Westminster, was adjudged insane by Judge Trask yesterday and ordered committed to the Southern California State Hospital at Highland, on recommendation of Dr. H. H. Maynard and Dr. Granville MacGowan. He was taken to the hospital last night.

Dr. Hyer, who is now 45 years old, was in early manhood a physician of brilliant attainments. He has lived in California for about ten years, but has never engaged in his profession here, choosing rather to devote himself to orange culture on a large scale. He has also been prominent in San Bernardino county politics. His present condition is due to sickness, sunstroke, death of children and strong drink. The sunstroke occurred about thirteen years ago, and, according to the doctors, was the predisposing cause of his present mental unbalance, while the exciting cause was the death of a little daughter, Dorthy Hyer, who was fatally burned three years ago while playing round a bonfire.

For a number of years Dr. Hyer has used liquor excessively and after intervals of much drinking has always been depressed and melancholy. Of late a suicidal manis has developed, so that he has given away his knives fearing self-injury, and threatmed to blow out his brains and to jump from lofty windows.

A fact indicating insanity was his statement to the examining physicians that he just could not resist the impulse to commit suicide by reason of little Dorothy's fate, in spite of the knowledge that such an act would bring suffering and misery on the rest of the family. He also stated that he had an excessive desire for drink that he could not control. One of his delusions is that two of his children, now BRILLIANT MAN'S MIND GONE.

OU insure your house against fire. You know what people would say if it burned down without insurance. They would say you were wanting in business sagacity, that you should have provided for this. Now leave house insurance and consider clothing insurance. Here the danger is even greater-not from fire, but from the chemicals and strong soaps used in the laundry. but his expense at the asylum will be paid by his wife, who is wealthy. It is hoped that a year's treatment will restore him to capacity.

"The expense of operating the first plan would consist of the original cost of the volumes which go to make up the traveling libraries and the clerk hire and supplies for operating the same. The sum of $2500 per annum would be a fair appropriation to begin with, $2000 to cover the cost of twenty-five libraries. with $500 for expenses; the whole to be under the supervision of the librarian of the Los Angeles Public Library.

"The second plan is less definite to estimate, but $1500 would probably be the sum which would cover the additional wear upon the books already in the library and duplication of copies of books most called for, which the added constituency would demand of the Los Angeles Public Library. Carefully-kept statistics would give a more accurate basis for estimating the exact cost for another year."

IT SURELY STUNG.

DOES SUPREME COURT WINCE? That Judge Shaw's recognization, however, their testimony did not appear quite so strong.

15 Instruments In Three Days

Ordinarily it would be considered good work for a piano house to sell five pianos in a whole week, but when it is known that the BARTLETT MUSIC CO. has sold that number of instruments in a day, and every day, not only for the past three days but for the past three weeks, it is a matter not only of surprise but of congratulation. DOUBTFUL VICTORY.

Both sides claimed a victory, and each continued to manifest a belligerent attitude toward the other, but a recurrence of resort to physical force was prevented by the police, who remained throughout the remainder of the session to preserve order.

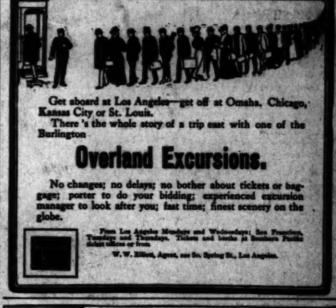

Finally Mrs. Hamilton and her party adjourned to the office of C. M. Hancon, in the same building, where the new board of directors organised by electing N. B. Everett president.

"WILL GIVE IN AGAIN.

"I told the men yesterday that I would not give in if there were not a tap of work done until Christmas, but Mr. Parkinson, the architect, has assured me that the extra expense will be made up to me by the owners. On those grounds I will allow their demand. Otherwise I would fight this last imposition to the finish.

"The men themselves are deploring the present state of things. The twelve that refused to work this morning said they were entirely satisfied with their hours and wages. But they said the union had voted the walkout, and that they would be fined $10 if they refused to obey. Really, the men are not to blame. It is a small group of men at the head of the union that causes the trouble."

GRAY'S UNDERSTUDY.

All went wall until the meeting of the Hod Carriers' Union on North Main street Monday night. Then somebody proposed demanding that the five wheelbarrow men also be given it a day. There was a stormy session, and finally the new demand carried.

Jim Gray was present, and engaged in a wrangle with the hod-carriers' president. The latter was determined to have a strike on his own account, and after hearing numerous wrathy spiels on the subject, the members voted to support their president in his ambitton to emulate Cxar Gray. It is said that Gray is angry, as he wants to be the only carr in the business. Testerday morning the entire twelve refused to work unless the five barrow men were also given it. Crowell stood on his agreement, and refused this hast demand. The planterers, consequently, one of the proprietors, declares it was a case of sgitatorism, pure and rimple. To The Times last evening he said:

"The men who quit in a body Saturday night made no demand for an increase in wages, therefore such demand was not refused; and it also logically follows that the statement in your morning contemporary in regard to Japanese and Chinese labor was not made. The management never attempted to get Japanese or Chinese but with indifferent success, and factory goes right on cutting up and turning out sugar. Many of who gult regret their action, and asked to be reinstated."

CHARLES H. M. ATHERTON.

Chales H. M. Atherton, the new member of the Looloos, arrived yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from Buffalo, and is now one of us.

He is a big, strapping heavyweight, tipping the scales at 122 points. He made his debut yesterday at the ball park in a practice game, and it is believed he will make good. Manager Morley stated last night that Atherton will be played in the series this week against the Crippies, and will be in right field.

In 1898 he belonged to the Wilkesbarre, Pa., club and was bought by the Washington National League club for 1900. In the latter club his batting average was .311. Last season he was with the American League team in Buffalo and batted for .336. In forty-nine games he made thirty-eight runs, four sacrafice hits and seven stolen bases. This season he was suspended from the Buffalo team owing to a dispute he had with the management, and when Morley heard of the trouble he wired on and secured him.

REDLANDS CAPITALIST POSSIBLY MURP POSSIBLY MURDERED.

DEATH OF JAMES M'ILHENNY A PECULIAR CASE.

REDLANDS, Aug. 6.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] The friends and relatives of James McIlhenny, the young Rediands capitalist who died on the schooner Stimson while en route from San Pedro to Seattle, Wash., fear that Mr. McIlhenny met with foul play. The dead man was an ardent sailor, and owned a fine yacht in the East. When he made up his mind to take a vacation for his health, he resolved upon a consting trip on a sailing vessel, but as most of them had no charters for carrying passengers, McIlhenny evaded the law by shipping at San Pedro as steward on the Stimson eighteen days ago.

When the Stimson arrived at Seattle the Coroner's office telegraphed responsible officials in this county to know if the dead man "had relations or friends." When he left McIlhenny had money in plenty, and also had a multiplicity of papers that must, had they been on him, have established his identity, but the body was treated as a county charge at Seattle.

At once upon learning of the death, the Philadelphia and Rediands relations of deceased telegraphed the Seattle county officials, under suitable guarantee: "Give the body every attention, spare no expense, and prepare in the best casket in the State of friends, in view of the fact that his papers and money are missing, think he was killed by a blow on the head, and his effects rified. Every one is cognisant of the bitterness on both sides in the maritime strike now on in the Pacific ports, and McIlhenny friends think that the fact that he shipped as a "steward" gave provocation to strike sympathisers for making way with him, not knowing his real position.

BAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 6.—(From The Times' Resident Correspondent.) H. B. Hunter, the unknown person who recently turned in the highest bid for $20,000 worth of school bonds, soon to be issued by the San Bernardino School District, has come off his perch. When the bids were opened, that of the mysterious Hunter offered over $1400 in premium for the bonds, exceeding by several hundred dollars any of the other bids submitted. Ten days ago County Treasurer Boren advised Hunter by letter that his bid had been accepted. No reply came until yesterday, when Boren was informed by letter that Hunter would be obliged to withdraw his bid. Then Boren awarded the bonds to the San Bernardino National Bank, whose bid of a premium of $1157 was the second highest submitted.

There has been a growing dissatisfaction in Rediands on account of the repeated ailures to convict the keepers of "blind tigers" in town, and the prohibitionists are inclined to lay the blame at the door of City Attorney Archer. After the acquittal of "Jack" Davis last week on a charge of violating the liquor ordinance, the city officers openly stated that they would under no circumstances make another arrest on that charge so long as Archer is City Attorney, and the pressure brought to bear has reached the City Trustees. This is a Prohibition board, and three of its five members this morning stated that they are greatly dissatisfied with the prosecution of the liquor-license violators, and two of them admitted that they have agreed upon a special meeting after the regular board meeting Wednesday to consider the removal of Archer and the substitution of another lawyer. sider the removal of Archer and the substitution of another lawyer.

When the last case was brought to trial the board tried to induce the City Attorney to accept the assistance of Attorney Campbell, but this he declined, and, as usual, lost the case, although Davis admitted selling the liquor, and it stood on the Judge's deak in front of the jury as it sat, and the two witnesses who bought it tasted it and swore that it was the same as they drank in Davis's place, and was of the identical bottles for which they had paid.

Two of the board members say they will oppose Archer's removal, because a new election is to be held in the spring, and they would rather keep him until that time, although these, too, condemn his trial of the prohibition cases.

LOMPOC.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

LOMPOC, Aug. &—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Rain commenced falling here at 2 o'clock yesterday moraing and continued for several hours, amounting to .25 of an inch.

The patronage given the new skimming station established by Mr. Smith of Los Angeles has created much comment. Within a day or two after the separator was started about $600 pounds of milk, or over half the entire amount delivered at the old creamer, was diverted to the new. The capacity of the new establishment was put to the test to accommodate the customers.

Arkley Bros. have thrashed about $600 sacks of outs this season, the only crop of the kind of any consequence in the valley.

The rock crusher which has been operated at Jalama for a year is soon to be moved farther south on the Southern Pacific. This means the taking of considerable activity and trade from Lompoc, for many men are constantly employed.

Prof. F. M. Buzick, late teacher of the commercial department in the High School, has moved his family to Los Angeles, where he becomes a teacher in a business college.

FREE CITY ADVERTISING.

"We ought to extend a vote of thanks to the new daily paper," said a prominent resident of Santa Ana today. "For the past several years the city has been paying from $400 to $500 a year for its city printing, and through the machinations of an unprincipled newspaper bussard the city was about to be fleeced out of even a larger amount this year on account of a change having been made in the published notice calling for bids, permitting bids only from established daily newspapers to be considered. As there was only one daily newspaper in Santa Ana, of course it had a monopoly, and the city would have had to pay whatever amount it saw fit to pull the municipal leg for. But the starting of a new daily paper a few days ago changed the aspect of affairs, bringing in as it did. competition, and as a result, instead of the municipality having its pedal extremity elongated by a professional leg puller, it will have its legal advertising done for the ensuing year free of charge."

CLAREMONT, Aug. 6.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] A pleasant party was given last evening at the home of Mrs. H. N. Kinney. About forty-five young people were present. The invitations were issued for a railroad tour through the principal cities of the country, and upon arriving at the house the young men were presented with two bunches of pins with which to buy tickets for themselves and their young lady friends. The ticket office was in charge of Miss' Marfor' Kinney. The house was placarded with a large and varied assortment of time tables, maps and notices, such as: "Dogs and bables are not allowed unless chained." "Beware of coyotes and mountain-lions." Chairs were arranged through the library and dining-room, after the manner of the seats in a railway car. Upon boarding the "car," the conductor, R. R. Wherry, inspected the tickets and allowed their owners to pass on. The tickets were printed on long strips of paper, and were quite amusing. Fifteen questions were drawn, and about half an hour was allowed for guessing. During the guessing Miss Selina Kinney as newsgirl. passed peanuts, candy and lie water. A, Rae Condit, as brakeman, tried to call out the stations, but only succeeded in getting the party to Covina.

"The conditions as to health about here are indeed remarkable when the manner of the living of many of our summer visitors is considered. A large proportion of the people spending a few days or more with the in summer time consists of those who are unable to secure good cottage quarters because of the desirable houses all being taken. As a result these people live in tents or in some of the cottages of filmsy construction under far different conditions from those in which they are when at their homes in the interior.

"Their meals are taken irregularly and in a great many cases without the painstaking cooking that is usual with them when at home. They bathe in the surf and remain in the wafer longer than they should. They lie in their wet clothes on the beach when they ought to be in dry ralment. They have not the sanitary drainage about their temporary abiding places that they ought to have and generally their doings and their environments are to a considerable extent in violation of the lays of hygiene. When all these things are considered it seems to my that if is really remarkable that there is so little illness among the people of the summer colony.

AVALON, Aug. 8.—(From The Times' Resident Correspondent.) The Warrior took up her regular run his morning between Avalon, the Isthmus and Sam Pedro, leaving here well loaded with passengers. Those who were expecting to see a large boat were disappointed, for she is but five feet longer than the Falcon, and built on pretty much the same plan, excepting that she has a cabin on the upper deck, and the after deck, below, is much more spacious. She stanish nearly two feet higher out of the water that the Falcon and has a greater horse-power than the Hermosa. She is expected to cut the time of the other boats at least 20 minutes.

It was under the greatest difficulties that she was gotten ready for the sea on account of the strike of the iron-workers at Ban Francisco and before she was throughly prepared the tie-up of the sailors and longshoremen occurred and it became necessary to get away whether ready or not, or else lie in San Francisco bay until the trike was terminated. When it was known that the Warrior was going to leave a company of strikers boarded her with the intention of preventing her from leaving. They found several men on board and they forcibly marched them ashore. The engineer and fireman, however, scenting trouble, had secreted themselves in the hold and when the strikers had departed they hastily got the boat under way. There had been no preliminary trial of the engines, and it was a gamble whether they could make the trip or not, but they took the chances and won.

Mrs. A. W. Harrett is surely one of the most successful anglers that ever struck Catalina. SANTA MONICA, Aug. 6.—(From The Times' Resident Correspondent) It had not been thought up to a few days ago that the chocolate water is anything but a phenomenon become monotonous through its long stay, but more serious effects may result. The day after the climax of the stench had been attained, which was a week ago yesterday, hundreds of pounds of dead surf fish were strewn along the beach toward Hallona. The little tyrants of the surf seen to be fatal to other, life that comes in contact with them. If they are deadly to some fish they no doubt affect all, and those that are caught with nots and hook and line very likely have the malady which killed others.

The question then arises, are the fish taken from this infected strip fit for human consumption? The solution of this is a matter of great importance, as fish form a very large and important article of food. So far as is known, no scientific explanation has been made of this, but it has now become of such a great and far-reaching import that it is necessary to recognize the facts and to discover their effect on health. So far as is known no cognizance of existing conditions has been taken by the State Board of Health or Fish Commission, but it cannot be done too quickly to suit the many people interested. Another effect noticed is that the shell fish are soft and mushy, and die quickly when taken from their element. Deep-sea fish, of course, are unaffected, but the surf and shell fish are and will be avoided by many as unfit for food while present conditions exist, or until the contrary has been established.

Lest you forget the biggest book sensation of the year is in progress, we print a summary of all the bargains previously advertised and which are still to be had. Owing to the rush, it has been impossible for our book manager to get out additional items. This sale includes every quality of binding and every sort of title that is appropriate for summer reading or for library uses.

We told you our reasons for inaugurating this sale in August. The sale itself has proven that we were right in supposing that we could sell two carloads of books during the dullest month of the year. You who braved the heat and came for these books were well repaid. You bought for less than any book store in Los Angeles pays for them. This sale is an achievement of which we are proud. It remained for the Hamburger store to be the first to inaugurate such a midsummer sale. We are glad that we are in a position to save money for our patrons. The manufacturers are the ones who lose by these ridiculous prices. Yours is the gain. We cannot print all of the titles to be found in these various lots of books, but you may rest assured of getting almost everything that we have previously advertiged. The ring list illustrates the way the prices run:
